The young people of the New Jersey Academy gave a very pleasant social at the Presbyterian church Friday evening. They had music and games, and refreshments were served. A feature was a spelling match in which little Miss Katherine Stoops, aged eight, stood longest on the side which chose her. This is no reflection on the others for Katherine is one of those youthful prodigies or phenoms, having already mastered Shakespeare. She is now devoting her spare time to Shelley, Keats and Browning.

Look out for the Spring Millinery opening at Ellason's. Better lines than ever.

On Wednesday of next week the A. C. of U. baseball team will try conclusions with the best team that can be scraped together in Logan. The A. C. boys have been practicing up for several days now and some very good talent has shown up. The U. A. C. String Quartette has been secured for an early appearance at Ogden as a regular number of the Star Course of entertainments. Considering the fact that on this course some of the very best musical talent in the United States has appeared, this engagement is quite a feather in the cap of the local organization. An effort is being made to secure the quartette for a Salt Lake engagement and it is more than probable that this will be arranged satisfactorily. The U. A. C. String Quartette is unquestionably the superior of many traveling companies received far and near as THE thing par excellence.

Those youngsters and matured worthies who have a tendency to violate the moral laws might well heed the cost, especially when the cost is assessed in Justice Brangham's court. A transient in this city and a hired girl in one of our city homes were caught in a hotel in this city about 1 a. m. Monday morning and during the day the officers hauled them before Mr. Brangham.
